

Maintenance Apprentice Opportunities – Bindaree Beef, Inverell, NSW

Full Time Position

Great way to kick start your career

A positive and rewarding team environment

Bindaree Food Group (BFG) is a vertically integrated supply chain business delivering global meat solutions both domestically and internationally and has solidified its position as a prominent leader in the Australian meat industry.

As an employer, our values underpin everything we do: culture of care, agility, exceed expectations and openness. We are driving change and innovation within our business, empowering, and developing our people. It is an exciting time to join our team, with a positive promotion for continuous improvement and positive culture change.

About the Roles

Bindaree Food Group are currently offering the following apprenticeships within our Maintenance team at the Inverell Processing Facility in New South Wales. In this role you will undertake a wide range of preventative maintenance and supporting of the day-to-day production requirements:

- Fitters
- Boilermakers
- Electricians

About You

To be successful in this role you will have:

- High standard work ethic
- Great communication skills
- Ability to work weekends and overtime as required
- Willingness to learn and follow instructions
- Ability to work well in a team environment

Why work for Bindaree?

- Full time position
- TAFE Training
- Nationally recognised qualification
- Access to salary sacrifice arrangements
- Access to the Employee Benefits scheme
- Discounted staff meat purchases
- Bindaree encourages ongoing professional and personal development – We are a Registered Training Organisation (RTO)

How to Apply

The successful applicant/s will be rewarded with the opportunity to work with a progressive, reliable, and stable Company. Relocation assistance may be available for the successful applicant. For further information about the role please contact our People & Culture team on (02) 6721 1411. To apply for this opportunity please submit your resume to recruitment@bindareefood.com.au.